Director’s Desk

Dr. Neha Sharma

The institute was established in 2010 with the intention to impart industry relevant education in the management domain, have the skills of learners to suit the industry and nurture talent so that our students can take up the role of catalyst of change in the industry of future.

Our core strength rests in our progressive and innovative learning oriented teaching practices and very contemporary industry relevant curriculum. It is important that the emerging, unarticulated needs of Industry 4.0 are addressed through cross disciplinary learning by deploying new age teaching learning methods. At SBS, our faculty is sanguine to this need and constantly endeavors to integrate it in thought as well as action. A very strong industry perspective is provided by the promoters of the institute through their multi sector industries.

All stake holders at SBS are influenced by the words of Alvin Toffler, “The illiterate of this century will not be those who cannot read and write, but those who cannot learn, unlearn and relearn”. We are therefore committed to developing a lifelong learning and resilient mindset in our students.

We are fortunate to have a strong group of full time, adjunct, visiting and alumni faculty supported by industry and international experts to engage the students. SBS offers a dynamic yet well structured eco system for the overall growth and development of our learners through a series of exciting activities, events, workshops, industry & community immersion, summer internship and global exposure.

I am deeply grateful to our mentors from the industry and corporates for their valuable guidance and support. We have consolidated many aspects of students delivery and engagement with the help of their inputs.

Rigorous Academics:
At SBS, academics form the core of the program. This is rigorous in terms of content, structure and pedagogy. The faculty team - two-thirds of them are doctorates in their areas and half of them have industry experience. The pedagogy consists of Lectures, Labs, Tutorials and Case-studies. There is a strong element of mentoring of students to prepare for executive career.

Industry Experts As Faculty:
In some of the high-end elective courses, SBS engages industry experts as visiting faculty. Areas like Brand Management, Retail Management, Digital Marketing, Negotiation Skills, Business Analytics etc. are examples of this. This process facilitates the students with real-time exposure to the industry practices.

Industry-Vetted-Curriculum:
SBS reviews its program structure and curriculum every year. The inputs to this process are feedback from faculty members, benchmarking with the best institutions in the country and abroad and suggestions from industry experts. Through this process, SBS ensures that the students are offered current and relevant curriculum that ensures knowledge and employability.
Industry Visits:
SBS makes it a point to ensure that every student visits at least six industry/work places. Such visits are planned right through the program. In the first year, the visits focus more on understanding the industry environment while during the second year, the focus is more intensely on the work-practices, cultural aspects and the overall dynamics of the situation.

12 Weeks Summer Internship:
SBS has a summer internship program of 12 weeks unlike the 8 weeks model adopted by most institutes. The Internship is jointly monitored by faculty and company guides to ensure definite learning in the process. This extended internship has been a significant game-changer in enhancing the placement prospects of SBS students.

Field Projects And Skill Oriented Courses:
As part of the curriculum, each SBS student carries out a number of field projects under the banner of their elective options. All the courses relating to computing skills are lab-based courses and students gain hands on experience in each of them. These courses ensure that students achieve high level of proficiency in them leading to high employability.

Certification Programs:
To maintain the pace with fast changing and dynamic corporate environment, SBS provides international certification programs to students which are the need of the hour. These programs provide the cutting edge advantage to the students which make them different from others. SBS has tied up with national and international companies that provide these certification courses.
